

40 DAYS OF ENGAGEMENT on Anti-Racism

WEEK 1

Preaching About Racism A Guide for Faith Leaders

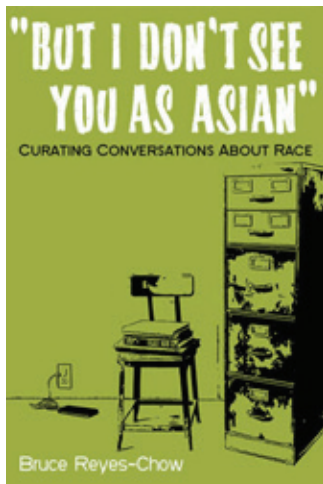

Using more than a decade of writing and teaching about racism, preaching professor and pastor Carolyn Helsel speaks directly to other faith leaders about how to address racism from the pulpit.

WEEK 2

The Other Side of the River: From Church Pew to Sweat Lodge

Through stories, humour, and insight, Alf Dumont challenges the church to re-examine the theology behind its history with residential schools.

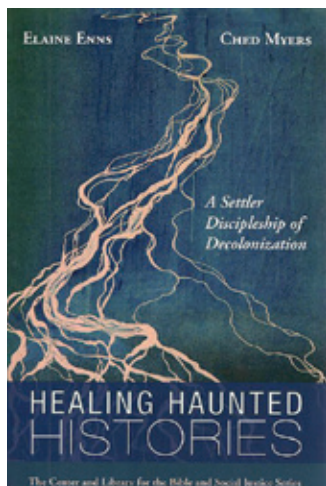

WEEK 3

But I Don't See You As Asian: Curating Conversations About Race

A collection of cringe-inducing statements about race that aims to turn awkward moments into dialogue by addressing thoughtless words and diversionary tactics.

WEEK 4

Healing Haunted Histories: A Settler Discipleship of Decolonization

Part memoir, part social, historical, and theological analysis, and part practical workbook, Healing Haunted Histories tackles the oldest and deepest injustices on the North American continent—violations which inhabit every intersection of settler and Indigenous worlds, past and present.

WEEK 5

Breaking the Ocean: A Memoir of Race, Rebellion, and Reconciliation

Introducing a unique perspective on how racism and systemic discrimination result in emotional scarring and ongoing PTSD, Breaking the Ocean answers the universal questions of what it means to belong, what it takes to become whole, and ultimately what is required to create change in ourselves and in society.

Reflections on Emancipation and Anti-Black Racism for Canada

Seeking to raise awareness about the history of African enslavement and the legacies of slavery in Canada, this book collects reflections by theologians, historians, and pastors who reflect on the relevance of the celebration of the abolition of slavery for Canada.
