

END THE KOREAN WAR

#End the Korean War

The Korean War is in a ceasefire state. In other words, it is not completely over. South Koreans can travel to almost anywhere in the world today, whether actually or virtually, but North Korea remains steadily closed off and inaccessible behind the barbed wires which break the Korean Peninsula in half across the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ). The fear of war, hostility, and military tension have shaped the lives of people living on the Korean Peninsula for seven decades. 70 years is enough. It's time to end the Korean War.

#Peace

We imagine a future where the people of the Korean Peninsula, East Asia and the world cooperate and coexist peacefully. We hope our resources will be used for people's safety and happiness, for environmental sustainability and a society without discrimination instead of preparing for war. We hope that the Korean Peninsula, which was a symbol of confrontation and conflict, will be changed into a birthplace of peace and coexistence together with peace-loving people around the world.

#Signatures

Asking your friends to join the Korea Peace Appeal campaign is easy but a powerful action. Individual actions will realize 100 million signatures. Connected voices of people across the world will become an immeasurable impact. Please join our journey to end the 70-year Korean War and bring peace for the world.

The National Council of Churches in Korea has challenged The United Church of Canada to add 10,000 signatures to this global campaign. Let's make it happen.

KOREA PEACE APPEAL is an international campaign that seeks to amplify voices calling for an end to the Korean War and a transition from armistice to peace beyond the Korean Peninsula and throughout the world.

The campaign aims to end the Korean War and achieve peace on the Korean Peninsula by collecting 100 million signatures of the Korea Peace Appeal from 2020, the 70th anniversary of the outbreak of the Korean War, to 2023, the 70th anniversary of the armistice agreement.

More than 370 South Korean civil society organizations, individual supporters, all the seven major religious orders in Korea, and over 60 international partner organizations are participating in the Korea Peace Appeal Campaign as of June 2021.

Korea Peace Appeal is now available in Arabic, Chinese, German, English, French, Korean, Japanese, Russian and Spanish. It will be translated into more diverse languages.
