The sermons in this series were created by the Rev. Catherine Stuart, the Rev. Ian March-MacCuish, the Rev. Evan Smith, and the Rev. Matthew Fillier.

Epiphany - Week 1a Sermon: Courageous Enough to Shine

- This sermon explores the important place of dark and light, which together enable us to explore the very depths of our faith. How offering our gifts transforms us and the way we think about relationships with God and others.

Epiphany - Week 1b Sermon: The Gift of Affirmation

- This sermon explores what we believe about baptism. The act of baptism doesn't make us perfect but opens us to the goodness that is within us and around us. It calls us to discipleship to Jesus and to offer our gifts to the world.

Epiphany - Week 2 Sermon: Let It Run

- This sermon, about the miracle of turning water into wine, asks us what it would be like for the church to run: celebrating people, sharing our energies, our excitement, our joy, and yes, our money.

Epiphany - Week 3 Sermon: We the Anointed Ones

- This sermon reminds us that we are anointed by God's Spirit to live our lives and our faith in the best ways possible: the ways that will allow all parts of the body of Christ to be lifted up and valued.

Epiphany - Week 4 Sermon: Here Now - Are You Ready

- This sermon challenges you to consider how you are being called, by God, to start again as a disciple of Jesus, to transform your everyday work, your skills, and your talents that we all take for granted by turning them into ploughshares and pruning hooks for the kingdom that is already almost here.

Epiphany - Week 5 Sermon: With My Whole Heart - Thank You

- This sermon gives thanks for the power of community filled with the transformative power of the Spirit—that's church. A place where you can show up and tell your whole story and know you are gifted, called, and chosen; you are God's people. You are not alone. And nothing and no one can take that away.
