

Tours

Wednesday July 21st is Tour Day. Women can explore the Capital of Canada on their own or take one of the four tours organized by the planning team.

The Hilton Garden Inn is approximately 15-30 minutes from downtown Ottawa, depending on traffic.

1) "Hop On, Hop Off" Ottawa Double Decker Bus Tour	Easy: set your own pace and explore what interests you. Enjoy a guided city tour of the Ottawa-Gatineau region all at your own pace, and discover the history of over 75 top sites and attractions in Ottawa, from Parliament Hill to the Rideau Canal, Museums, historic sites, the RCMP stables to name a few. There is a live guide, plus audio commentary on the bus. Hop On and Hop Off the bus as many times as you like. (the tour lasts 60-90 minutes if you don't hop off at any time)	$100.00
2) Ottawa Bus and River Boar Tour	Scenic Take this exclusive tour on the Ottawa River to see over 50 unique focal points, see the Parliament building from the river side. After your river tour you will board a double decker bus to explore the rest of the city. The boat tour is 70--90 minutes and the bus tour is approximately 90 minutes.	$120.00
3) Canadian Museum of History	Indoor The Canadian Museum of History is one of Canada's leading museums for Canadian and Indigenous history, located in Gatineau, right across the river from downtown Ottawa. Known for its distinctive architecture and wide-ranging exhibits, the museum brings together national stories, and cultural perspectives in one of the National Capital Region's best-known cultural landmarks. The museum has on site food service on the lower level, making it easy to take a break without leaving the building. This makes a great spot for lunch, a coffee break, or a light pause between exhibits.	$65.00
4) Day Trip to Upper Canada Village	Adventurous: lots of walking Since 1961, Upper Canada Village has offered more than just a museum experience- it's a journey back to rural English Canada in 1866. With over forty historic buildings, including homes, working mills, and artisan workshops, every corner of the village brings the past to life. Skilled interpreters and welcoming staff make history come alive, showing visitors the daily life, trades, and traditions of a 19th- century Ontario community. You can watch flour being ground, wool spun, and blacksmiths at work, just as it was over 150 years ago. There are three places to eat at the village or you can stop and have a Beavertail (an Ottawa must!)	$70.00

All tour prices include transportation to where the tour begins and back to the hotel after the tour. You must book your tour when filling out your registration form.
